Dear Friends

We, the Officers and Members of Springfield Grange No. 54, take great pleasure in presenting this program to you. We sincerely hope that this will prove to be your most enjoyable visit to our City, long remembered for its hospitality and the pleasure of meeting old friends again, and the formation of many new acquaintances.

We also extend to the Convention Division of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce our sincere appreciation for their invaluable assistance on this occasion. We are extremely grateful to those whose advertising herein has made this program possible. We trust that you will join with us in showing our gratitude for their support by patronizing them at every opportunity.

SECRETARIAL POSITIONS

Young men and young women who desire to earn an independent income in a pleasant and stimulating position will be interested in reading our illustrated booklet, "Planning Your Future."

It describes opportunities in Secretarial work and tells how to qualify for a preferred position in minimum time. It explains how our free Employment Service has placed hundreds of graduates in positions with good salaries.

The edition is limited. A post card or phone call will bring you a copy without cost or obligation.
